NETSUPPORT DNA

IT Asset Management for the Corporate Enterprise

Reporting module allows IT Managers to create bespoke reports and views using a simple drag-and-drop interface.

Effective End Point Security - allows a company to either restrict use to only approved USB devices, or control memory stick access by user or department.

Detailed Hardware Inventories and History module

Full Software Inventory and licensing summary

Alerting Module - highlights any important changes

CPU

Energy Monitoring - create reports on energy usage

Acceptable Use Policies Provides automated display, enforcement and tracking of Acceptable Use Policies across the workplace.

Printer monitoring reports on printer usage and costs across the organization

Power Management feature - automatically power devices on/off

Chat with users and deliver messages in real time to individual users or departments

Remote Control module - deliver hands-on support whenever needed.

Internet and Application metering - limit access by time of day and department

Software Distribution - application packages can be "pushed" to target devices automatically or published for a department to be "pulled" down by users when needed

www.netsupportdna.com